In the case of an organisation which is not a corporate body, the organisation itself cannot be a member of the company; instead, membership shall be open to an individual nominated by that organisation (where the organisation would qualify for membership under article 18), but on the basis that no more than one individual nominated by each organisation under this article 19 can be a member of the company at any given time.

The directors may, at their discretion, refuse to admit any individual or organisation to membership where they have reasonable grounds to believe that he/she/it might, if admitted to membership, act in a manner which would damage the reputation of the company, undermine the efficiency of its operations and/or disrupt the proper conduct of its meetings.
29. For the avoidance of doubt, when deciding whether to admit any individual or organisation to membership, the directors shall adhere to a transparent process which enshrines the principles of equal treatment and non-discrimination.
30. The directors shall consider each application for membership at the first directors' meeting which is held after receipt of the application; the directors shall, within a reasonable time after the meeting, notify the applicant of their decision on the application.

32. In the event that either or both of the requirements under article 31 cease to be met through a reduction in the number of members or a reduction in the proportion of Ordinary Members included within the membership, the directors may not conduct any business other than to ensure the admission of sufficient members (or, as the case may be, Ordinary Members) to ensure that those requirements are met once more.

33. Members (ie those within the boundary described in article 4) shall not pay a membership subscription.

Arrangements involving the company's website

Register of members

35. The directors shall maintain a register of members, setting out the full name and address of each member, the date on which he/she/it was admitted to membership, the category of membership into which he/she/it falls, and the date on which any individual or organisation ceased to be a member.

37. Any individual or organisation who/which wishes to withdraw from membership shall lodge with the company a written notice to that effect, signed by him/her or (in the case of a corporate body) signed on its behalf by an appropriate officer of that body; on receipt of the notice by the company, he/she/it shall cease to be a member.
38. An organisation which has nominated an individual for membership under article 19 may withdraw its nomination at any time, by way of notice to the company to that effect, signed by an appropriate officer of that organisation; on receipt of the notice by the company, he/she will automatically cease to be a member.

Notice of general meetings

- 47. At least 14 clear days' notice must be given of any general meeting.
- 48. The reference to "clear days" in article 50 shall be taken to mean that, in calculating the period of notice, the day after the notice is posted, (or, in the case of a notice sent by electronic means, the day after it was sent) and also the day of the meeting, should be excluded.
- 49. A notice calling a meeting shall specify the time and place of the meeting; it shall

 - (c) (subject to the company notifying members of the presence of the notice on the website, and complying with the other requirements of section 309 of the Act) by means of a website.

Special resolutions and ordinary resolutions

52. For the purposes of these articles, a "special resolution" means a resolution passed by 75% or more of the votes cast on the resolution at a general meeting, providing proper notice of the meeting and of the intention to propose the resolution has been given in accordance with articles 50 to 54; for the avoidance of doubt, the reference to a 75% majority relates only to the number of votes cast in favour of the resolution as compared with the total number of votes cast in relation to the resolution, and accordingly no account shall be taken of abstentions or members absent from the meeting.
53. In addition to the matters expressly referred to elsewhere in these articles, the provisions of the Act allow the company, by special resolution,
- (a) to alter its name
 - (b) to alter any provision of these articles or adopt new articles of association.
54. If the company is a community body or Part 3A community body (in each case, as defined in article 2) amendments to the articles of association of the company should be notified to Scottish Ministers under section 35(1) of the Land Reform Act.

67. A member shall not be entitled to appoint more than one proxy to attend on the same occasion.
68. A proxy appointed to attend and vote at any meeting instead of a member shall have the same right as the member who appointed him/her to speak at the meeting and need not be a member of the company.

69. A vote given, or ballot demanded, by proxy shall be valid notwithstanding that the authority of the person voting or demanding a ballot had terminated prior to the giving of such vote or demanding of such ballot, unless notice of such termination was received by the company at the company's registered office (or, where sent by electronic means, was received by the company at the address notified by the company to the members for the purpose of electronic communications) before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote was given or the ballot demanded.
70. An Associate Member which is a corporate body shall be entitled to appoint an individual to attend and speak at any general meeting as its authorised representative.

subject to such terms and conditions as they may consider appropriate and reasonable in the circumstances.

100. For the avoidance of doubt, article 102 shall not apply to a conflict of interest arising in relation to a transaction or arrangement with the company; any conflict of interest of that nature shall be governed by the provisions of articles 99 to 101 and articles 116 to 119 and the code of conduct referred to in article 123.
